NDTO
NORTH DAKOTA TRADE OFFICE

About North Dakota's Global Business Awards

Governor Jack Dalrymple has been invited to present the following International Business Awards on Thursday, May 7 during the North Dakota Trade Office's Global Business Award Ceremony.

2014 North Dakota Service to Exporters Award

This award acknowledges the commitment of an organization – an international business service provider – that demonstrates excellence in assisting North Dakota businesses in the international marketplace.

The award is presented to an organization that has:

- Provided expertise leading to North Dakota exporters' success in the global marketplace
- Demonstrated a commitment to increasing North Dakota's trade volume
- Provided educational support and leadership to North Dakota exporters

2014 North Dakota Exporter of the Year Award

The North Dakota Exporter of the Year Award is presented to one business that has made significant advancements in the international marketplace.

The award-winning business needs to have:

- Expanded its business to a new international market in 2014
- Increased its export sales during 2014
- Supported the larger, statewide effort to expand North Dakota's global reach