

About North Dakota's Global Business Awards

Lieutenant Governor Brent Sanford has been invited to present the following International Business Awards on Wednesday, April 4 during the North Dakota Trade Office's Global Business Connections Conference.

2017 North Dakota Service to Exporters Award

This award acknowledges the commitment of an organization – an international business service provider – that demonstrates excellence in assisting North Dakota businesses in the international marketplace.

The award is presented to an organization that has:

- Provided expertise leading to North Dakota exporters' success in the global marketplace
- Demonstrated a commitment to increasing North Dakota's trade volume
- Provided educational support and leadership to North Dakota exporters

2017 North Dakota Exporter of the Year Award

The North Dakota Exporter of the Year Award is presented to one business that has made significant advancements in the international marketplace.

The award-winning business needs to have:

- Expanded its business to a new international market in 2017
- Increased its export sales during 2017
- Supported the larger, statewide effort to expand North Dakota's global reach
